DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

1. Applicant's amendment of claims 1, 2, 12, 14, 15, 25, 27, 28, 38, 40, 46, and 52 has been fully considered and entered.

Response to Arguments

2. Applicant's arguments filed 17 July 2003 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Applicant's argument that claims 1, 14, 27, 40-43, 46-49, and 52 define a useful tangible result is not persuasive because the claims are limited to the selection of a prime number. Applicant is advised to specify in the claims the derivation of the RSA public and private keys using the selected prime number, as described in the specification, to give the claims a useful tangible result.

Applicant's arguments, see Amendment B, filed 17 July 2003, with respect to claims 1-5, 9-13, 14-18, 22-25, 26-31, 35-39, 40-42, 43-57 have been fully considered and are persuasive. The rejections of the claims based on combinations of the Austin, Tomko, Dawson, and Jablon references have been withdrawn.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

3. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

4. Claims 1-4, 6-9, 12-17, 19-22, 25-30, 32-35, 38-40, 44-46, 50-52, 56, 57 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter. The claimed invention fails to define a useful tangible result with regards to the user specific information and the entity specific information. The cited claims define a claimed invention with regards to the user specific information and the entity specific information that is abstract in nature.

5. Claims 1-4, 6-17, 19-30, 32-47 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter. The claimed invention is not limited to the technological arts because the claimed invention is abstract in nature.

Allowable Subject Matter

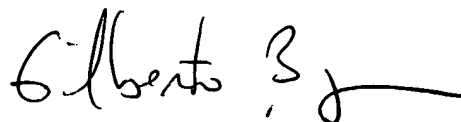

6. Claims 5, 18, and 31 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
